

WHEN INDICATIONS:

SATURDAY—Fair weather; colder, with northerly winds.

LARGEST ASSORTMENT

LOWEST PRICES

HOLIDAY

GOODS

MODEL

TRAVELERS' INDEX.

KANKAKEE LINE

(BIG FOUR RAILWAY)

FOUR GREAT TOURS IN ONE.

The greatest, the business, the variety of scenery, of climate, the wonders civilization has worked and the greater and grander of nature of this country of ours are unsurpassed, and the railroads have brought all of these far-separated sights and wonders within the scope of a four-weeks' leisurely trip. For instance, you live in Indiana; you can take the great express trains on the Kankakee Line, speed across the Ohio, down through the blue-green ferns of Kentucky, down into and through the historical interest clustering around Chattanooga; on to New Orleans—one of the most interesting cities in the world; on through the sugar and cotton plantations along the Gulf coast and into fair Texas; on to El Paso, where a street-car ride takes you into old Mexico. Perhaps for the first time you see from under the stars and stripes. You can go far into the land of the Montezuma, but you long for the fair flowers and fruits of our own tropical California. You spend the winter months in perpetual summer, and April finds you in San Francisco ready for a homeward flight, over mountain, plain and farmland, through Salt Lake, Denver and the grandest scenery in the world; or perhaps you are in Oregon or Washington Territory, and your homeward flight will take you via the great Northern Pacific route, with its wealth of scenery and unrivaled Yellowstone Park; or perhaps you have yielded to the charms of Puget sound, and you are again out from under the Star-spangled Banner and the flag of England floats over you as you cross the grand mountain range of Manitoba are crossed, Winnipeg, the wonderful, passed, and southward you come through the fairest combination of village, river, lake, prairie and woodland on this earth—Minnesota, St. Paul, Chicago, home, and the Kankakee can do all this for very little money.

TIME CARD.

CINCINNATI DIVISION.

Depart.....8:50am 10:50am 2:50pm 6:20pm

Arrive.....10:40am 11:50am 4:50pm 10:50pm

CINCINNATI DIVISION—SUNDAY TRAINS.

Depart.....8:50am 12:50pm 5:15pm 11:20pm

Arrive.....9:30am 12:30pm 3:30pm 6:10pm

Pullman palace cars, elegant reclining-chair cars, and parlor cars between Indianapolis, Chicago and Cincinnati.

For tickets, sleeping-car accommodations and all information call at Union Depot or Model Ticket Office, corner Washington and Meridian streets.

J. H. MARTIN, Dist. Pass. Agt.

Don't forget that he has a choice selection of Jewelry, Diamonds, Watches, Gold-Headed Canes, etc., for

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS.

HOLIDAY PRESENTS AT COST

BIGGEST CHANCE FOR

Dishes, Glassware, Toys,

Dolls, Plush Goods, Etc.

CLOSING-OUT SALE.

I. N. HEIMES,

Nos. 44 and 46 East Washington Street.

TO THE PUBLIC

Those about to build will find it an object to call upon EDWARD SCHURMANN, No. 2 Odd-fellows Hall, Indianapolis, Ind., State Agent for the Chicago Art Glass Company, as we are prepared to UNDERSELL all competitors in Stained, Ornamental or Beveled Plate Glass for Housework. Memorial and Church Windows a specialty.

HOLIDAY GOODS

Holiday Presents should be durable and useful, as well as ornamental. I have a full and complete line of Rockers of all styles and sizes, Tables, Easels, Screens, Cabinets of all sorts, Pedestals, Book-cases, Book-shelves, etc., etc., any of which would make a desirable present.

CALL AND SEE THEM.

W. M. L. ELDER,

43 & 45 South Meridian Street.

BANQUET OF BARGAINS

OUR GREAT CHRISTMAS FEAST

$5 A place at which it will cost you from $5 to $15 According to the amount you consume, $15

HATS AND FUR SETS

The celebrated Schindler Silk Hat, $7.

The famous Lamson Stiff Hat, $5.

The elegant Austin, Drew & Co. Soft Hat, $5.

The Beaver Fur Gauntlets, $7 to $12.

An Oregon Seal Gauntlet, extra long, $6.

Genuine Seal Gloves and Gauntlets, $9 to $12.

Genuine Seal Turbans, $6 to $9.

Genuine Alaska Seal, "London Dye," Alexis, Driving, Jockey, College and Detroit styles, $10 to $18. Every Alaska Seal Cap guaranteed.

Nutria and Beaver Fur Adjustable Coat Sets (Collars and Cuffs), $7 to $12.

YOUTHS' AND CHILDREN'S

Suits and Overcoats.

Children's Scotch, Plaid and Stripes and Cashmere, $5 to $9.

Worsted, brown, blue and black, in plaids and stripes, $6 to $10.

One and two-piece Kilt Suits, $5 to $13.

Overcoats in Cashmere and Scotch Plaids, $5 to $9.50. Worsted $5.50 to $10.

Youths' Overcoats, all wool blue-black Chin-chilla, $10. Fur Beavers, $15.

Brown mixed diagonal Worsted, single breasted, fly front, $6. Light brown Melton, single breasted, fly front, soft roll, silk faced, $8.50. Dark brown Melton, silk faced, soft roll, single-breasted, fly front, $10. Dark gray Cashmere, single breasted, fly front, soft roll, $10. Black Corkscrew, $13.50. Wide Wale Worsted, single-breasted Sack, fly front, $15.

Youths' Suits—Fancy Scotch Stripes, $6.50.

Black Worsted, $8.50. Scotch Plaid, $6.

Dark gray Cashmere, $5.50.

FINE ODDS AND ENDS

$5. $15.

Exquisite, brocade, fancy, colored or white Silk Mufflers.

All-silk Umbrellas, with sterling silver handles and caps, extra fine, and large gold caps.

Natural wood handles, with carved figures, the latest fad with large silver rings.

French and English Cashmere and Balbriggan Underwear, in plain and fancy colors.

Silk Underwear.

Chas. McIntosh & Co.'s (England) Rubber Coats, with and without Capes.

Cardigan and Jersey Jackets.

Smoking Jackets in silk, plain and embroidered. English Coatings in plaids and stripes, tricot, quilted linings, with satin trimmings.

MEN'S SUITS AND OVERCOATS

Just a Few.

Suits in black diagonal worsted, Sack, $13.50 to $15. Black Corkscrew Sack, $13.

Blue diagonal worsted, Sack, $14. Fancy striped Cashmere, Scotch Plaid, gray mixed, fancy checks and stripes, in Scotch and Cashmere, Sack, Frook and Cutaway. Plain blue heavy Cashmere, single and double-breasted, Sack, $13 to $15. Plain gray Cheviot, very heavy, $13.50. Gray mixed, heavy, $15. Blue Cheviot, Frook, $15. Plain heavy beaver Sack, $15.

Overcoats, ten out of hundreds: Irish Frieze, $15. Brown, blue and black Chin-chilla, $15. Blue Rib Chin-chilla, $6.50 to $15. Brown, all-wool Astrakhan Collars and Cuffs, $12.

Cashmere Ulsters, $8. Scotch Cape Overcoat, $12. Victor all-wool Cashmere Coats, $7.50 to $9. Astrakhan Coats, $10.50. Irish Beaver, satin-lined, $15.

GIVE GIFTS TO MANY THE WHEN

Store open every night till Christmas.

S. D. CRANE

98 East Washington St.,

Corner of Delaware.

Don't forget that he has a choice selection of Jewelry, Diamonds, Watches, Gold-Headed Canes, etc., for

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS.

HOLIDAY PRESENTS AT COST

BIGGEST CHANCE FOR

Dishes, Glassware, Toys,

Dolls, Plush Goods, Etc.

CLOSING-OUT SALE.

I. N. HEIMES,

Nos. 44 and 46 East Washington Street.

TO THE PUBLIC

Those about to build will find it an object to call upon EDWARD SCHURMANN, No. 2 Odd-fellows Hall, Indianapolis, Ind., State Agent for the Chicago Art Glass Company, as we are prepared to UNDERSELL all competitors in Stained, Ornamental or Beveled Plate Glass for Housework. Memorial and Church Windows a specialty.

HOLIDAY GOODS

Holiday Presents should be durable and useful, as well as ornamental. I have a full and complete line of Rockers of all styles and sizes, Tables, Easels, Screens, Cabinets of all sorts, Pedestals, Book-cases, Book-shelves, etc., etc., any of which would make a desirable present.

CALL AND SEE THEM.

W. M. L. ELDER,

43 & 45 South Meridian Street.

STANLEY AND EMIN ARE SAFE

The News Comes Simultaneously from the East and West Coasts of Africa,

Which Is Believed by the Experts to Place the Question of Its Complete Authenticity Beyond Any Reasonable Doubt.

Expectation that They Will Shortly Be Heard from at the Mouth of the Congo.

GOOD NEWS FROM AFRICA.

Stanley and Emin Are Safe and Are Believed to Be on Their Way to the Coast.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—A Zanzibar dispatch says that letters, dated Stanley Falls, Aug. 29, have been delivered here by Tippoo Tib's men. They state that a letter was received at Stanley Falls from Henry M. Stanley on Aug. 28. Stanley was then at Bonyala, on the Aruwimi, where he had arrived on Aug. 17. He had left Emin Pasha eighty-two days before in perfect health and provided with plenty of food. Stanley had returned to Bonyala for the loads of stores in charge of his rear guard, and intended to leave, ten days later, to rejoin Emin. He reported all the whites in the expedition as healthy, and said the expedition wanted nothing.

The West African Telegraph Company has received the following dispatch from St. Thomas, dated Friday, 2 P. M.:

"I have just received information that Henry M. Stanley, with Emin Pasha, has arrived on the Aruwimi. The news is reliable. Further details will follow. PARSONS, Agent."

In the Stanley Falls edition it is stated that Stanley reported that Emin was in possession of vast stores of ivory and other goods, and that he had abundance of food. Stanley expected to leave Bonyala at the end of August.

The telegram sent by the St. Thomas agent of the West African Telegraph Company announcing the receipt of information that Stanley and Emin had arrived on the Aruwimi was read in the House of Commons, to-night, and received very favorable attention.

The contents of the dispatch confirm the news received by way of Zanzibar, and the fact that both dispatches were received on the same day, coming from both sides of Africa, is regarded as not only a remarkable coincidence, but almost indisputable evidence of Stanley's safety. It is now believed, as it has all along been believed by a few, that Stanley and Emin are en route to the mouth of the Congo river, and it is expected that news from them will be received from that point.

A dispatch to the Times from Zanzibar says: "Tippoo Tib's messengers came by way of Uganda, Uji and Unyamwezi, with letters from Stanley, dated Aug. 25. They confirm the other accounts that Stanley left Emin with Cash, and that both were perfectly well. The messengers will return direct to Tippoo Tib."

LORD SALISBURY.

He Declines to Say When Lord Salisbury's Vacant Place Will Be Filled.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—In the House of Lords, to-day, the Earl of Dunraven asked Lord Salisbury when the government intended to appoint a minister to succeed Lord Salisbury at Washington. Lord Salisbury replied:

"I have told my noble friend privately, that the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is incomplete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United States is complete, and that, therefore, in accordance with a uniform rule, I could say nothing. It has always been a usage of the House, that the minister to the United States should not be appointed until the correspondence on the subject of the minister to the United